

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

Building on his extensive leadership expertise from his operational and strategic management roles, as well as his contributions to national and international work on clinical leadership Ian Davidson has now become a founder member of the Faculty of Medical Leadership and Management. (www.fmlm.ac.uk).

Mersdee Health Limited strongly supports the importance of clinical leadership in developing and delivering high quality, effective and efficient healthcare services. Clinical leadership is broader than medical leadership and encompasses all those delivering clinical services regardless of their professional discipline. Mersdee Health Limited supports and encourages discipline specific programmes in leadership as well as cross disciplinary approaches.

Find out how Mersdee Health Limited can help your clinical staff develop and use their leadership potential to deliver real benefits to your organisation and all those who commission or access your services.
